

Denis M. Wolowiecki, CAPS Research

Denis M. Wolowiecki is Executive Managing Director of CAPS Research, a nonprofit research center for supply management leaders, where he is leading the development of actionable improvement tools by building on CAPS data and research. He brings to CAPS nearly 30 years of cross-industry supply management experience as an executive, the insight gained from working in consulting roles, and a deep understanding of driving successful transformational improvements.

Prior to joining CAPS, Mr. Wolowiecki recently held executive supply chain and sourcing positions with Vitalant, Husqvarna Group, Aleris International, Inc., and Goodyear Tire & Rubber Co. He also offers more than a decade of supply chain consulting knowledge having worked with Accenture and KPMG following initial career experiences as an aerospace systems engineer.

Mr. Wolowiecki received a Master of Business Administration focused in Operations and International Business from Kent State University, a graduate certificate from American Graduate School of International Management – Thunderbird, and a Bachelor of Science in Mechanical Engineering from Ohio Northern University. He is also an Advisory Board Member for CARISCA, the Center for Applied Research and Innovation in Supply Chain-Africa, and a frequent guest lecturer at Arizona State University (ASU).

In his personal time, he enjoys spending time with his family, building scale military models, watching action and suspense movies, and restoring classic automobiles.