IX. Contributions to Purchasing and Supply Management

The J. Shipman Gold Medal Award is presented to an individual whose modest, unselfish, sincere, and persistent efforts for the advancement of purchasing and supply management, and whose able assistance and guidance to purchasing professionals in their endeavors eminently qualify him or her for this, the highest award within our power to confer.

With the foregoing in mind, explain additional, pertinent, outstanding contributions to the purchasing and supply management profession causing you, as an individual or as an association, to recommend the person for this award. Please do not repeat items covered in other sections of this nomination form. Please limit your remarks to no more than two pages. Examples of this type of information would be as follows: speeches, magazine and newspaper articles, seminars, teaching, Junior Achievement activities, and purchasing/supply management research.

NOTE: Do not attach testimonials, photos, and copies of speeches, articles, seminar programs, etc. unless requested by the Shipman Committee.
